

This is in protest against revising the rules! Public Radio and Television would then be able to own only one station, while Bush's cronies Rupert Murdoch and Clear Channel would be able to own thousands! This is unfair to the listening and viewing public!!